v.	)	DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

The federal venue statute requires that a civil action, other than one based on diversity jurisdiction, be brought only in “(1) a judicial district in which any defendant resides, if all defendants are residents of the State in which the district is located; (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated; or (3) if there is no district in which an action may otherwise be brought as provided in this section, any judicial district in which any defendant is subject to the court’s personal jurisdiction with respect to such action.” 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).

In this case, Petitioner is challenging a prison disciplinary hearing held at High Desert State Prison (“HDSP”) in Susanville, California, concerning events which occurred when Petitioner was incarcerated at HDSP. HDSP is located in the Sacramento Division of the Eastern District of California. Since the events giving rise to the claim took place at HDSP in Susanville, California, the petition should have been filed in the Sacramento Division. In the interest of justice, a federal court

1 may transfer a case to the appropriate district. See 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a).

2 Accordingly, the Court ORDERS that this matter is transferred to the Sacramento Division of 3 the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California.

4
5 IT IS SO ORDERED.
